N.Y. Penal Law 210.45 – Making a Punishable False Written Statement. A person is guilty of making a punishable false written statement when he knowingly makes a false statement, which he does not believe to be true, in a written instrument bearing a legally authorized form notice to the effect that false statements made therein are punishable.

Making a punishable false written statement is a class A misdemeanor. Upon conviction of a Class “A” misdemeanor, a court may sentence an individual to a maximum of one year in jail or three (3) years probation. In addition, a fine of up to $1,000 or twice the amount of the individual’s gain from the crime may be imposed.
